An exempt organization must make available for public inspection, upon request and without charge, a copy of its original and amended annual information returns. Each information return must be made available from the date it is required to be filed (determined without regard to any extensions), or is actually filed, whichever is later. An annual information return includes an exact copy of the return (Form 990 or 990-EZ and amended return, if any) and all schedules, attachments, and supporting documents filed with the IRS. In the case of a tax-exempt organization other than a private foundation, the names and addresses of contributors to the organization need not be disclosed, and Schedule B has been redacted accordingly.
