GAMMA PHI BETA INTRODUCES THE 2020-23 FOUNDATION CHAIRWOMAN

May 5, 2020

Centennial, Colorado — Gamma Phi Beta’s International Council (IC) met virtually at the end of April and appointed Angela “Angie” Jordan Dimit (Illinois at Urbana-Champaign) as the 2020-23 Gamma Phi Beta Foundation Chairwoman.

Angie earned her bachelor’s degree in business administration and marketing and her master’s degree in human resources education from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, which is also where she joined Gamma Phi Beta at Omicron Chapter.

She has been an employed by her alma mater for more than 30 years, working her way up to her current position as the director of advancement for the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. In this role, Angie cultivates and sustains relevant lifelong relationships with and among students, alumni and donors and creates and stewards a culture of giving throughout Student Affairs at the university. She intends to lean on this experience to achieve similar results for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

“I am passionate about cultivating and sustaining a culture of philanthropy within Gamma Phi Beta through time, talent and treasures with innovative engagement opportunities,” Angie says.

Another passion of hers is communication. Angie is a certified communications consultant who specializes in team building, interpersonal communication and principles of effective leadership. Angie has proven to be an effective leader. She has served in a multitude of leadership roles within the Sorority at both the local and international levels as well as within her community for more than 25 years.

“Angie is backed by extensive experience in leading strategic advancement plans and fundraising. I am confident she will lead the Foundation Board of Trustees through a successful term,” says International President Annabel Jones (Oklahoma).
