Gamma Phi Beta Member Karlee Nuttelman Honored with Shelley Sutherland Outstanding Volunteer Award

December 19, 2024

Centennial, CO – Gamma Phi Beta is proud to announce that Karlee Nuttelman (Nebraska-Kearney) has been awarded the Shelley Sutherland Outstanding Volunteer Award by the Association of Fraternity and Sorority Advisors (AFA). This prestigious honor recognizes Karlee’s exceptional dedication and impactful contributions to the fraternity and sorority advising community.

The Shelley Sutherland Outstanding Volunteer Award, established in 2003 and renamed in 2011, celebrates an AFA member who has made significant, lasting contributions to the organization’s initiatives through consistent and meaningful volunteer service. Honorees embody the values and mission of AFA, demonstrating reliability, commitment and excellence in their work. Karlee was selected for this honor by the AFA Board of Directors and Central Office Staff, a testament to her remarkable achievements and dedication.

Karlee has an extensive background in higher education and fraternity and sorority life, having served in various roles at institutions such as the University of Nebraska-Kearney, Indiana University and the University of Dayton. She has also contributed to the field through her work with Sigma Kappa Sorority, Delta Tau Delta Fraternity and RISE Partnerships, where she helped develop impactful educational resources.

A devoted Gamma Phi Beta member and volunteer, Karlee’s contributions extend beyond her professional career. She is pursuing a second master’s degree in public health at the University of Nebraska Medical Center, furthering her commitment to fostering health and wellness in her community.

“We are thrilled to see Karlee’s dedication recognized with the Shelley Sutherland Outstanding Volunteer Award,” said Stephanie Gauchat Carriere (Arizona), International President of Gamma Phi Beta. “Her passion for advancing fraternity and sorority life and her commitment to Gamma Phi Beta’s values make her an outstanding role model for our members.”
