

Gamma Phi Get-Together: Host FAQ

1. What is Gamma Phi Get-Together?

Gather with a sister or several and do something fun on or around September 24 to honor the Founders first meeting! As pairs or groups of sisters join together, let's celebrate the strong connection we have as Gamma Phi Betas. By coming together, we can show just how far our bond reaches – across collegiate chapters, distance, generations and more.

2. What exactly am I signing up for?

As a host, you commit to supporting an event of your choosing from Friday, September 20 through Sunday, September 29, 2024. Events can be privately planned or publicly registered to receive promotional assistance by International Headquarters (IH).

3. What are examples of public events?

If you want your event to be open to all Gamma Phi Beta alumnae, please select “public” when designating your event type. Public events are traditionally hosted by those looking to engage with members they haven't yet met or to grow attendance in pre-existing groups, such as alumnae chapters. Note: Public events receive online promotional support from IH via email, social media and website.

4. What are examples of private events?

If you do not want your event published via email communication, social media and on the Gamma Phi Beta website, please select “private” when designating your event type. Private events are traditionally hosted by those looking to connect with those they already have a formed relationship with. This could be a Zoom call with members from your initiating class, a weekend getaway with your volunteer team or a trip abroad with your lifelong sisters! Find more event inspiration here!

Note: Private events are not publicly promoted by IH.

When you've decided on all event details, you can register your event online. Don't miss the opportunity to receive a 2024 Gamma Phi Get-Together swag box for your event before supplies run out!

6. How do members learn more about my event?
