

GAMMA PHI BETA ANNOUNCES ELECTION OF 2022-24 NOMINATING COMMITTEE

June 24, 2022

Centennial, CO – Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. is pleased to announce the election of our 2022-24 Nominating Committee at our 80th International Convention in Saint Louis, Missouri.

The elected committee includes:

Bree Brownlee (Alma)
Lindsay Young Champion (Southern Methodist)
Jennifer Kurumada Chuang (California-Berkeley)
Kelly Brown Dunne (William & Mary)
Tamara Sprull Rudnicki (Jacksonville)
Chandra Claassen Soulé (Nebraska-Lincoln)
Marlo Edwards Tapley (Colorado-Boulder)

This talented team represents significant experience and strength demonstrated in recruitment, team management, board-level roles, higher education, marketing, relationship-building, mentoring and commitment to belonging, equity, diversity and inclusion efforts. These members have contributed to Gamma Phi Beta in support of collegiate and alumnae chapters, in international roles and with all Gamma Phi Beta entities.

The purpose of the Nominating Committee is to formulate a slate of one candidate for each office of International Council and a slate of seven candidates for the next Nominating Committee. At each Convention, delegates elect the next International Council and elect seven members for the Nominating Committee for the next biennium.

ABOUT

Gamma Phi Beta was founded on November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University by four bold and courageous women. The Sorority's mission is to build confident women of character who celebrate sisterhood and make a difference in the world around us. Headquartered in Centennial, Colorado, the Sorority has chartered 190 collegiate chapters across the United States and Canada and has more than 242,000 initiated members.
