

Gamma Phi Beta Recognizes Dr. Callie Cox Bauer With Carnation Award

July 9, 2024

Centennial, CO – Gamma Phi Beta presented Dr. Callie Cox Bauer (Minnesota-Twin Cities) with the prestigious Carnation Award at the Sorority’s 81st Convention in Chicago, Illinois. The award recognizes members whose outstanding achievements in fields outside the Sorority have brought them honor or great distinction. Dr. Cox Bauer graduated from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities, where she was initiated into Kappa Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta.

Dr. Cox Bauer's journey in medicine began with her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from Des Moines University. She completed her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Aurora Sinai Medical Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, solidifying her dedication to women’s health care. She currently serves patients at the Milwaukee-based Aurora Sinai Medical Center.

Throughout her medical career, Dr. Cox Bauer has held various leadership roles, conducted and published numerous research articles in the field and spearheaded initiatives to enhance patient satisfaction, access to quality care and advance equity for women. In addition to her clinical work, Dr. Cox Bauer plays a pivotal role in shaping the next generation of OBGYN practitioners as the associate program director and adjunct assistant professor at Aurora Sinai Medical Center.

Among her many professional accolades, including reputable awards from organizations like the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, Dr. Cox Bauer was recognized in Gamma Phi Beta’s inaugural 40 Under 40 class in 2020. She has also served the Sorority as a financial advisor and chapter advisor for multiple collegiate chapters. She was recently elected to serve as Vice President on the Sorority’s 2024-26 International Council.

Since 1974, Gamma Phi Beta has presented the Carnation Award to members who excel in their careers and positively represent themselves and the Sorority. The award recognizes impressive personal accomplishments and identifies role models within the organization. This year's additional Carnation Award winners are Annie Mitchell (Puget Sound), Cheryl Darcel Gunter (Tennessee-Knoxville) and Muriel Lipsey Smith (Manitoba).

About

Gamma Phi Beta was founded on November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University by four bold and courageous women.
