HFC Learning Objectives

- By the end of HFC, you will be able to:
 - Identify one or more individuals who support the work of AHCs.
 - Describe one or more trends in fraternal property management.
 - Identify at least one strategic multi-year goal for your local AHC.

Note: None of the HFC sessions should be construed as legal advice. You will need to determine if anything you want to implement following this conference will need to be approved by your board, affiliated house corporation (AHC) membership and local campus. You may need to consult your AHC's legal counsel.

HFC Learning Objective #1: Maximizing Your Support Relationships

HFC Learning Objective #1: Maximizing Your Support Relationships

- Activity instructions
 - Turn to Page 13 in your workbook.
 - Circle two strategies you will use to maximize your support relationships during HFC.

HFC Learning Objective #2: Trends In Fraternal Property Management

- True or false: HFC is designed to answer every question you have about your property.
 - Answer: False.
- True or false: HFC is designed to empower you to find the strategies, concepts or next-steps that are most relevant to your property.
 - Answer: True.

HFC Learning Objective #3: Creating A Multi-Year Goal

- Record key takeaways
- Bring them together during our closing session to create a multi-year goal.
