July 9, 2024

Centennial, CO – Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. is pleased to announce the election of our 2024-26 International Council (IC) at our 81st Convention in Chicago, Illinois.

The elected council includes:

International President Stephanie Gauchat Carriere (Arizona)

Vice President Dr. Callie Cox Bauer (Minnesota-Twin Cities)

Vice President Teresa Haney (Northern Arizona)

Vice President Lindsay Healless (Wisconsin-Milwaukee)

Vice President Jessica Jecmen (Oklahoma City)

Vice President Victoria Lopez-Herrera (Alumnae Initiate)

Vice President Kristen Heine Slaughter (Florida State)

This exceptional team brings a wealth of professional experience from various industries and organizational levels and has contributed extensively to all three Gamma Phi Beta entities. They possess significant expertise in belonging, equity, diversity and inclusion training, along with community and external board involvement. Their backgrounds span numerous dimensions of higher education administration, leadership within the National Panhellenic Conference and a steadfast commitment to serving Gamma Phi Beta in diverse roles, supporting both collegiate and alumnae operations. Additionally, this group of leaders exemplifies the rich diversity of our membership, encompassing racial, cultural, generational and alumnae initiate identities.

The members of the 2024-26 IC will officially take office on August 1, 2024.

About

Gamma Phi Beta was founded on November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University by four bold and courageous women. The Sorority's mission is to build confident women of character who celebrate sisterhood and make a difference in the world around us. Headquartered in Centennial, Colorado, the Sorority has chartered 190 collegiate chapters across the United States and Canada and has more than 250,000 initiated members.
