Gamma Phi Beta International President Inducted Into University of Arizona Order Of Omega Greek Hall Of Fame

January 29, 2025

Centennial, CO – Stephanie Gauchat Carriere (Arizona), International President of Gamma Phi Beta, was unanimously voted into the University of Arizona Order of Omega Greek Hall of Fame. She will be formally inducted and receive this prestigious honor at the University’s Greek Awards event on February 26, 2025.

The Order of Omega Greek Hall of Fame was established to recognize outstanding University of Arizona alumni who have made a positive impact on both the Greek and larger communities. Honorees are celebrated for their leadership and service to their fraternity or sorority, local and national communities, the University and beyond.

Stephanie has made a name for herself within the interfraternal space through her exemplary leadership and commitment to advancing sorority life. In the past biennium, she has been Gamma Phi Beta’s chief Panhellenic officer, the liaison and primary contact for the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC). Her volunteer service, however, spans more than two decades, during which she has held roles ranging from Chapter Advisor to International President and countless others in between, showcasing her deep commitment to Gamma Phi Beta and the Panhellenic community. Stephanie is a shining example of what it means to be a Gamma Phi Beta, upholding our Core Values of Love, Labor, Learning and Loyalty during every interaction and embodying the highest type of womanhood.

When asked what this recognition means to she Sorority, Gamma Phi Beta Chief Executive Officer Megan Smiley Wick (Washington State) shared these words: “This honor reflects the profound impact Stephanie has made within Gamma Phi Beta and the broader interfraternal community. She is a deeply respected leader, mentor and friend in Gamma Phi Beta, NPC and the Greek community as a whole. I couldn’t think of a more deserving person for this exceptional honor.”
