

MEET INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT AND FOUNDATION TRUSTEE

Annabel Jones

(OKLAHOMA)

Annabel Jones earned her Bachelor of Arts (with distinction) and Juris Doctorate degrees from the University of Oklahoma, where she held numerous leadership positions on campus and was named to Phi Beta Kappa. A resident of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Annabel is a retired corporate attorney. Her practice centered on corporate governance, complex corporate financial transactions, securities law, risk management and human resources. She continues to have a limited consulting practice in these areas. Professionally she is a member of the Oklahoma and American Bar Associations, the Society of Corporate Governance Professionals and the National Association of Corporate Directors.

Currently, Annabel is the International President of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. She also serves as a Trustee of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. Annabel previously served as the Sorority's Collegiate Vice President and Financial Vice President on International Council and as chairwoman of the Board of Managers of the Gamma Phi Beta Facilities Management Company. She has volunteered for the Sorority for more than 25 years, including service as a regional director, chairwoman of the Sorority's financial advisory board, chairwoman of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation finance and investment committee and sorority coordinator-new chapter for our chapter at the University of Central Florida.

While volunteering for Gamma Phi Beta has always been a significant priority for Annabel, she has also served on the boards of directors of the Junior League of Tulsa, the Child Abuse Network and Big Brothers and Sisters of Green Country. She is currently a member of the University of Oklahoma College of Arts and Sciences Board of Advocates and is a volunteer for Tulsa's Reading Partners and the Tulsa Area United Way. She is a member of Leadership Tulsa and the Women's Leadership Council of the Tulsa Area United Way.

When not volunteering Annabel enjoys travel, rooting for the Sooners and spoiling her eight nieces and nephews and their growing families.
