

MEET FOUNDATION
TRUSTEE, CHAIR
Julie Dunn Eichenberg
(FLORIDA STATE)

Julie Dunn Eichenberg is the Chair of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation, a role that she was appointed to in 2014 by Gamma Phi Beta's International Council. As Chair, Julie leads a 12-member Board of Trustees and directs the operations of the Foundation staff based in Centennial, Colorado.

Raised just outside of Daytona Beach, Florida, Julie earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Florida State University (FSU) in 1994 and currently serves as the chair of the Florida State University Foundation, is a member of the Seminole Torchbearers Board for Student Affairs and was recently awarded the Circle of Gold by the FSU Alumni Association for service to the university. As a student at FSU, Julie was very active in campus life and served as Panhellenic Association President and was elected Senior Class secretary. Julie was named 1993 Sorority Woman of the Year and received the Seminole Leadership Award. She was also one of three individuals selected in 1994 for Gold Key's Hall of Fame.

Julie is currently the vice president of Brand Distribution at Turner Content Distribution (TCD), a division of Turner, which manages the distribution of content for Turner's news and entertainment networks in the U.S. and Canada. Based in Atlanta, she leads content negotiation and marketing strategy with Turner's largest distributors and oversees all field accounts and affiliate ad sales. Julie has been with Turner for more than 20 years in a variety of roles within the distribution division.

Julie has been an active volunteer leader for Gamma Phi Beta for nearly 25 years starting as a collegiate leadership consultant, as well as the director of programming, regional director for Region 4 and chairwoman of the Nominating Committee. She also served for many years on the executive board and as president of the Atlanta Alumnae Chapter.

In addition to her volunteer commitment to Gamma Phi Beta, Julie is also passionately involved with the Cystic Fibrosis (CF) Foundation promoting CF awareness and fundraising throughout the state of Georgia and has helped raise millions of dollars in the search for a cure. Serving as co-chair of sponsorship for the Annual CF Wine & Roses Gala, Julie has been recognized with the Momentum Award and the Heart of Gold Award for record-breaking fundraising.

Julie resides in Atlanta, Georgia, and is married to Bob Eichenberg. They have two young sons, Zachary and Tyler.
