Rosemary Milew
(CALIFORNIA-IRVINE)

A native of California, Rosemary Milew earned her Bachelor of Science in biology from the University of California-Irvine. As a member of Delta Eta Chapter, she served as recording secretary and philanthropy chairwoman. After graduation, she moved to Chicago where she earned her Juris Doctorate degree from Loyola University of Chicago and her Master of Business Administration, with majors in strategy, marketing finance and analytical consulting from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Business.

Rosemary is currently vice president and general manager of the JuraLaw division of Law Bulletin Media. Prior to that, she worked at LexisNexis as vice president of sales for the U.S. Law School Market.

Rosemary is currently serving as a Trustee and Governance chair of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation. She has volunteered for the Sorority for more than 25 years, including service as a member of the Nominating Committee, president of the Epsilon Chapter Affiliated House Corporation Board and president of the Chicago Alumnae Chapter.

In addition to her volunteer commitment to Gamma Phi Beta throughout the years, Rosemary has also served as editor in chief of the Holy Name Cathedral Chronicle – New World Publications and president of the Parish Council at Holy Name Cathedral. She has also served as president of the Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity, Chicago Alumni Chapter and second vice president of the Advocates Society.

Currently, Rosemary serves as a board member and Grants Committee chair of the McLaughlin Faith Foundation.

Rosemary resides in Chicago, Illinois, and is married to Dan Pilch. They enjoy spending time with their more than 23 nieces and nephews as well as sailing, skiing, exercising and traveling.
