

MEET FOUNDATION
TRUSTEE, CHAIR
Jeannette "J.J." Stohl Kaelin
(COLORADO-BOULDER)

J.J. Kaelin is the Chair of the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation.

A native of Springfield, Ohio, J.J. Stohl Kaelin graduated from the University of Colorado-Boulder with a degree in communication: radio, TV and film. Shortly after graduation, she served a year as a collegiate leadership consultant for Gamma Phi Beta followed by a 15-year career in radio broadcasting in three different markets holding positions in management and sales, voice-over production and public affairs programming. She just concluded working 20 years for Doncaster Fine Clothing as a wardrobe consultant.

Throughout the years, J.J. has continued to volunteer in various positions within the Sorority including international song chairwoman, director of collegiate extension, sorority director-public relations and special recruitment consultant. She also served as Membership Vice President on International Council from 2008-12. Since August 1, 2012, J.J. has been a Trustee for the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation as well as chairwoman for the Development and PR Committee.

J.J. most recently completed a two-year term as president of Newborn Hope Corporate Board of Directors for the state of Colorado and currently serves as the president of the St. Peter Church Parish Council in Monument, Colorado. For 16 years, J.J. was the children's choir director at St. Peter Church in Monument and was appointed to the parish council in 2015. As a vocal soloist, J.J. fulfills her passion for music by performing at various civic events, serving as the vocal soloist at concerts and weddings, and cantoring with her church choir. She resides in Monument with her husband, Bill. They have a son, Adam, a graduate of the University of Colorado, and a 1st lieutenant and pilot in the United States Army Reserves.
