AND, ACTION!

Facilitated by

Learning Objectives

- Summarize takeaways from weekend programming.
- Identify new chapter ideas.
- Rank ideas.
- Create an action plan.

Reflection

What is your biggest takeaway from this weekend?

What is something you feel you still need to learn?

Brainstorm

- There are no bad ideas.
- Move quickly.
- Brainstorm individually.
- Follow the timed prompts.

Prompt 1

Brainstorm ways you can build trust and credibility in your chapter.

Prompt 2

Brainstorm sisterhood programs to implement at your chapter.

Prompt 3

Brainstorm ways you can create a quality member experience for middle members.

Prompt 4

Brainstorm tactics or ways to address conflict with your team.

Prompt 5

Brainstorm big and small practices to increase recognition and celebration in your chapter.

Prompt 6

Brainstorm ways to demonstrate care and concern during discipline processes.

Prompt 7

Brainstorm ideas you learned from other sisters during roundtable discussions, REAL Relationships, other programs or your loyalty circles.

Prompt 8

Anything goes!

Prioritization Matrix

High Need Hard to Implement 1	High Need Easy to Implement 2
Low Need Hard to Implement 3	Low Need Easy to Implement 4

Build Credibility

- 1) Show your members this plan is important to your chapter.
- 2) Easy implementation is more likely to lead to success. This encourages members to take on future challenges.

Teamwork

Share ideas from quadrant 2 with your table.

ACTION PLANNING

Debrief

- Which plan are you most excited to take back to your chapter?
- How might you overcome some of the obstacles you will face when implementing these plans?
- How will you share your plans with the chapter?

Review of Learning

- Summarized takeaways from weekend programming.
- Identified new chapter ideas.
- Ranked ideas.
- Created two action plans.

Taking It Home

- Take all of your brainstorming ideas to your next executive council meeting.
- If you need to, participate in the prioritization activity again.
- Use the action planning worksheet we have provided to help you implement your ideas.
