FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BARBARA GLANZ RECOGNIZED WITH GAMMA PHI BETA'S CARNATION AWARD

-- Certified speaking professional and author recognized for outstanding achievements --

Centennial, Colorado – Gamma Phi Beta Sorority presented member, author and public speaker Barbara Bauerle Glanz with the Carnation Award at the Sorority's 77th biennial Convention in Atlanta, Georgia. The award recognizes members whose outstanding achievements in fields outside the Sorority have brought them honor or great distinction. Glanz attended the University of Kansas where she was a member of Sigma Chapter.

A renowned public speaker, Glanz travels the world presenting at various conferences, associations and meetings, inspiring businesses and individuals who want to improve morale, retention and service. She is also the author of 12 inspirational books, each taking on a topic designed to help readers advance their personal and professional lives. One of fewer than 550 certified speaking professionals worldwide, Glanz has been honored with numerous accolades and has been featured on ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN and more.

Since 1974, Gamma Phi Beta has presented the Carnation Award to members who excel in their careers and positively represent themselves and the Sorority. The award recognizes impressive personal accomplishments and identifies role models within the organization. This year's other Carnation Award winners include aviation professional Kathy Fox, renowned photographer Pamela Littky and Time Warner Cable Networks executive Melinda Witmer.
