

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A

RESIDENT CLC!

8 a.m. – Wake up and get ready for the day.

9 a.m. – Run errands around town.

10 a.m. – Grab coffee with members.

11 a.m. – Check and respond to all emails and voicemails.

Noon – Weekly meeting with chapter president over lunch at my new favorite local restaurant.

1 p.m. – Weekly meeting with education vice president; plan upcoming sisterhood retreat.

2 p.m. – Weekly meeting with public relations vice president.

3 p.m. – Weekly meeting with Panhellenic affairs vice president.

4 p.m. – Time to relax, call home and catch up on my favorite TV show.

5 p.m. – Weekly meeting with membership vice president; discuss the chapter's participation in their upcoming first formal recruitment!

6 p.m. – Membership department meeting.

6:30 p.m. – Education department meeting.

7 p.m. – Dinner at my apartment (my new home away from home for the semester!).

7:30 p.m. – Weekly conference call with sorority coordinator-new chapter (SC-NC), chapter advisor and chapter president.

8 p.m. – Homecoming football game with chapter members.

10 p.m. – Update weekly report and send daily recap email to SC-NC.

11 p.m. – Wrap up the day by answering emails and prep for upcoming meetings.

11:30 p.m. – Text friends and family about how much you love being a CLC and that you truly feel like a member of the campus community before heading to bed.

Midnight – Sweet Dreams!
